Many people whose heads are constantly aching have no idea what relief scientifically fitted glasses will give them. This theory is now universally established. Improperly fitted glasses will invariably increase the trouble and may lead to total blindness. Our ability to adjust glasses safely and correctly is beyond question. Consult us.

James L. Britton et al.
James L. Britton and George W. Cunningham, defendants, will take notice that on the 21st day of October, 1894, Mary A. Chambers, plaintiff herein, filed her petition in the District Court of Nemaha county, Nebraska, against said defendants, the object and prayer of which are to have declared void and cancelled a certain tax certificate issued by the County Treasurer of Nemaha county, Nebraska, about the 5th day of November, 1891, purporting to sell at tax sale twenty-two (22) feet off from the north end of lots 10 and 11 in block 11 in the city of Auburn in Nemaha county, Nebraska. For the reason that said certificate and tax sale was illegal and entirely unauthorized and based upon an illegal levy of taxes for the years 1887, 1888, and 1889, for the reason that the taxes were largely in excess of the amounts provided by law, and the said levies were made without any authority whatever therefore; and praying that said tax sale and said tax certificate may be declared illegal and entirely void and wholly set aside and cancelled.

You and each of you are required to answer said petition on or before the 21st day of October, A. D. 1895.

THE JUDICIAL TICKET.

Tecumseh Chieftain

The generally expressed opinion among leading republicans is that the judicial ticket nominated in Tecumseh last Monday is a good one—one that will be heartily supported through the campaign and at the polls on the 5th of next November. Of course the friends of the unsuccessful candidates are disappointed because of the defeat of their favorites, but that disappointment will not result in any manner of disloyalty to the ticket. The contest for nominations was a friendly one, fairly fought, and the skirts of the winners, Hon. J. S. Stull and Hon. Chas. B. Letton, are not tainted to the slightest extent with anything savoring of the practice of sharp politics in that connection. These gentlemen entered the lists with the other candidates, they marshalled their forces wisely, a majority of the delegates flocked to their standards, they were nominated, and now it is the duty of republicans to see that they are elected.

Hon. J. S. Stull, one of the nominees, has been for years the leader of the Nemaha county bar. He is a lawyer of acknowledged ability, has been connected with all the important litigation in Nemaha county for years, and his wide experience in legal matters preeminently fits him for the duties of judge. His private life is above reproach. The opposition will find him an invulnerable candidate and it might as well acknowledge defeat at his hands first as last. Mr. Stull has a strong individuality and he will attract strength to his candidacy wherever he goes in his travels through the district.

Hon. Charles B. Letton, the other nominee, is a resident of Fairbury, and stands at the head of the Jefferson county bar. His record is one of continued success. He has won his way to the front ranks of his profession and now his career is about to be rounded out with a district judgeship. He is a man against whom not one derogatory word can be truthfully said, and those who have known him longest and best are the loudest in his praise. He is regarded as one of the best judges of law in southeastern Nebraska, and there is no doubt but that he will prove a valuable public servant on the bench.

The republican party is to be congratulated on the excellence of the judicial ticket. No apology will be necessary for either of the candidates. They are competent, safe and thoroughly good men and as such will be enthusiastically supported by the party.

General Colby of Beatrice did not receive the nomination for judge at Tecumseh, but there is no doubt of his having had Gage county at his back in the contest. He had twenty five of the best and strongest men in Gage county; bankers, lawyers, farmers and business men. Any man would be proud of the support of such men. Their fidelity to General Colby was demonstrated by their going down with him. They submitted to defeat but would not surrender. Their conduct and endorsement of Colby is a contradiction of the slanders that have been put in circulation by his enemies for political purposes.—Falls City Journal.

Easy to take, sure to cure, no pain, nothing to dread, pleasant little pills, DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Best for sick headache, biliousness, sour stomach and constipation. Taylor.

W. H. Nelson, who is in the drug business at Kingville, Mo., has so much confidence in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he warrants every bottle and offers to refund the money to any customer, who is not satisfied after using it. Mr. Nelson takes no risk in doing so because the Remedy is a certain cure the diseases for which it is intended and he knows it. It is for sale by M. H. Taylor, druggist.

Cholera morbus is a dangerous complaint, and often is fatal in its results. To avoid this you should use DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure, as soon as the first symptoms appear. Taylor.

WHAT IS SAID ABOUT THEM.

The nominees are well spoken of by members of their own party, and a personal acquaintance with Judge J. S. Stull extending over a period of some dozen years or more satisfies us that he is a gentleman that will poll a heavy vote, not only within his own party ranks, but from among those who are capable of appreciating a good citizen and neighbor.—Johnson County Journal (dem.)

Mr. Letton has been a resident of Jefferson county since boyhood; he is a gentleman of sterling integrity, and admired, respected and trusted by all who know him.

Mr. Stull is well known to many of the readers of the Journal. He is an old citizen of Nemaha county and has the entire confidence and respect of friends and acquaintances.

These gentlemen are ripe lawyers of large experience and acknowledged ability, honest and fearless.

They are entitled to the cordial support of the entire republican party, and will receive it, besides a large vote from the democrats and populists who are personally acquainted with them and admire them for their sterling qualities.

It is a good strong clean ticket of which the republican party may well be proud.—Falls City Journal.

The result of the judicial convention at Tecumseh last Monday evening was more acceptable to the majority of the republicans of this district than was expected, in view of the many strong candidates in the field, and the prevailing determination of the friends of each to secure the nomination for their favorites. There has seldom been held a more interesting convention than this one, and, indeed, none of more importance. The office of district judge is revered by the people, and nominations for that position, of course, should become it. Messrs. Letton of Jefferson and Stull of Nemaha, the nominees of the convention, are considered strong men as candidates and eminently suitable for judge. They will be elected by handsome majorities.—Humboldt Standard.

The announcement of Judge Stull's nomination for district judge by the republicans comes with a great degree of satisfaction to many friends of his in this section of the country who have never forgotten the shabby treatment he received when he was a candidate for the same office eight years ago, and who see in his nomination now the partial righting of the great wrong done him then. Mr. Stull is one of the best posted lawyers in the district, and a jurist who has few equals. He is clear headed, of active brain, and upon the bench will win a reputation for fairness and justice in all cases. We have no doubt but what Judge Stull will receive the full vote of his party, at least.—Shubert Gazette (Ind.)

Diarrhoea should be stopped promptly. It soon becomes chronic, DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure is effective, safe and certain. Hundreds of testimonials bear witness to the virtue of this great medicine. It can always be depended upon, its use saves time and money. Taylor, the druggist.

A horse kicked J. S. Shafer, of the Freemyer House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days he was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many others and says it excellent for any kind of bruise or sprain. This Remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. For sale by M. H. Taylor, druggist.
